Anti-Bullying Policy

Purpose

B2W is committed to staff and learners' right to work and learn in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and bullying. The Provider has a zero-tolerance approach to all forms of bullying and is fully committed to upholding and promoting Fundamental British Values.

Scope

This policy is intended to address issues arising between learners. Other accusations of bullying are dealt with as follows:

- Staff accused of bullying students are referred through the B2Ws Complaints Procedure and the Human Resources Procedures.
- Staff accused of bullying staff are referred through B2Ws Grievance Procedure and Human Resources Procedures.
- Students accused of bullying staff are referred through the Student Disciplinary Procedure.

This policy applies when students are on B2W premises; on Provider related activities off site including work placement and in all situations when representing the B2W. The Provider will also act where behaviour can be linked to the Provider; could bring B2W in to disrepute and / or could endanger staff and students.

The Anti-Bullying Policy is aimed at the whole Provider community, staff, students, parents, carers, employers, volunteers and partners.

Legal Context

The Education Act 2002 places a duty on learning Providers to safeguard and promote the welfare of children. Safeguarding encompasses bullying and all principles are applicable to the entire student population of the B2W. B2W's Safeguarding Policies make specific reference to bullying with protected characteristics; these will be reported as part of the safeguarding monitoring process.

The Education Act 2010 requires B2W to comply with the public-sector equality duty. This policy takes those requirements into account. The Provider's Single Equality Scheme is relevant to this policy.

Senior Management Team

The Senior Management Team will monitor the reported incidents of bullying and the actions taken to resolve these issues through termly monitoring of disciplinary and safeguarding Key Performance Indicator's (KPI's).

Definition of Bullying

Bullying is deliberately hurtful or intimidating behaviour by an individual or group, repeated over time. Which results in intentionally or unintentionally undermining, humiliating, denigrating or injuring the recipient.

Bullying can be:

- Direct – physical, verbal, non-verbal.
- Indirect – cyber-bullying, e-bullying, texting.

Anti-Bullying Policy

Bullying often relates to differences, real or perceived (see Appendix 1). Specific areas of bullying can include:

- Race / Religion
- Appearance
- Culture / Nationality
- Ability
- Disability
- Health.
- Homophobia / Sexual Orientation / Transgender
- Family / Home Circumstances.
- Sexism
- Socioeconomic Aspects

B2W aims to promote a common understanding of what constitutes bullying through the Student Handbook, posters, tutorial framework, and induction process.

Prevention

B2W is committed to establishing a culture of tolerance and positive engagement so that bullying is prevented. To establish this ethos B2W has developed a number of strategies aimed at prevention.

Prevention Strategies include;

- Students learn about respect and bullying, citizenship, the Prevent strategy, equality and diversity in lessons or one to ones.

Within this framework and throughout the curriculum there are opportunities to develop skills such as team work, empathy and resilience.

- Anti-Bullying posters are displayed to raise awareness and signpost support.
- All staff receive safeguarding training and training specific to the Prevent Duty
- Anti-Bullying Week, Hate Crime Awareness, LGBT Month and Internet Safety day are discussed with learners
- Expectations are made clear to learners at induction.

Intervention Procedures

All reports of bullying will be taken seriously and addressed as quickly as possible. The priority is to support those being bullied. The Provider determines the nature and extent of the bullying and takes actions appropriate to the circumstance.

In summary, once a report of bullying is received a member of staff will meet with the individual/s being bullied to discuss the circumstances and severity of the bullying and determine how B2W intends to proceed. It may be appropriate to involve parents / carers at this stage. Anonymity cannot always be guaranteed as B2W has a duty to act to protect and safeguard students, but every effort will be made to deal sensitively with the issues and, wherever possible maintain anonymity.

A record of accusations of bullying behaviour and actions taken are kept in the confidential student record.

When the B2W believes that bullying has occurred it will be dealt with as a disciplinary matter through the Disciplinary process.

Lists of possible sanctions / outcomes are contained within the disciplinary procedure.

The disciplinary process takes into account the needs of vulnerable students including those responsible for bullying.

If the person making the allegation is dissatisfied about how it has been dealt with, he / she has the right to request that the outcome is independently reviewed through B2W's Complaints Procedure.

The B2W works with and supports those responsible for bullying to understand the impact of their behaviour.

Anti-Bullying Policy

TYPES OF BULLYING

- Bullying includes: a wide range of repetitive behaviours with the intent to cause harm
- for example: name calling, offensive comments, hitting, pushing, theft or damage to belongings, graffiti, coercion, spreading of harmful messages through gossip, sending or spreading messages and images through mobile phones and the internet, deliberate exclusion.
- Bullying is not: teasing and banter between friends without intention to cause harm, falling out between friends after a disagreement, behaviour that all parties consented to.
- Bullying linked to prejudice and discrimination: bullying can also be linked to prejudicial behaviour or targeting of certain individuals or groups – for example homophobic bullying, bullying associated with disability, bullying related to health conditions and allergies, bullying related to race and religion, bullying of students who care for their parents or their siblings (young carers), and gender based bullying (e.g. transphobia, sexual and sexist bullying).
- Bullying related to appearance: we also know that students can be subjected to bullying related to their physical appearance (e.g. weight, height, disfigurements, hair, teeth, skin conditions, and clothes).
- Sexual bullying: sexual bullying is any behaviour with a sexual element that is harmful, non-consensual and repeated. This could include sexual comments and name-calling, spreading of sexual rumours, use of technology and social networking sites to spread sexual gossip, comments or images, sexting, non-consensual touch (e.g. touching body parts, pulling on items of clothing specific to a gender).
- Cyber-bullying: the development of internet and mobile phone technology has provided different tools and methods for bullying others known as 'cyber-bullying'. However, fundamentally it is driven by the same behaviour and motivation as any form of bullying. One off incidents, such as sending an image which is then forwarded to a group, can quickly become repetitive. Cyber-bullying can include sending or posting of harmful messages, comments and images online or through mobile phones, exclusion from social networking and impersonating of others to cause harm. The sharing and posting of images without the persons consent that cause harm and embarrassment is unlawful and subject to legal proceedings.
- Bullying and crime: There are times that bullying behaviour becomes criminal - but not all bullying behaviour is criminal. Some examples of bullying behaviour that could be considered criminal include threatening or actual physical assault, threatening or actual sexual assault, the use of technology to bully and harm, coercing others to commit a crime, hate crime (e.g. racism). If we think a crime has been committed, the police will be contacted.
